Immigration gets computers

KARACHI, Jan 1: The immigration counters at the Jinnah Terminal of Quaid-i-Azam International Airport, which used to record necessary data of passengers until now manually, introduced computer technology on Thursday.

Civil Aviation Authority chief inaugurated the new system which would also be introduced at other airports.

In the first phase, batch mode system has been introduced. It would be followed by introduction of a coordinated computerised system on with all data.